The shipping that has entered the harbor of Honoldiu during the month of May has, as a whole, been well above the average. The number of above the average. The number of vessels calling here is a new record, and the amount of freight received is very large. For the 11 months of this fiscal year the freight brought here is way above past averages, and the number of passengers that have arrived is far ahead of any other year. In all 61 vessels—52 steamers and 9 sailing boatz—called during May. Of the 61 vessels, 34 were under the American flig, 15 under the Japanese, 9 under the British, and Norway, Denmark and Argentine each had one. There were 26 vessels to come for bunkers and provisions, but these did not leave freight or passengers and were as follows: Three American for provisions and repairs, 2 for bunkers, 17 Japanese for bunkers, one British for provisions and five for bunkers, one U.S. naval collier and one Danish for bunkers.

During the 11 months of this fiscal year 518 vessels have entered this port walle only 543 came here in the 12 months of last year. During this year the U. S. custom inspectors have admeasured 22 vessels for Panama canal, toil tonnage, tax certificates and for the passenger act.

General cargoes of freight that arrived here in May from domestic ports amounted to 42,131 tons; lumber, 2,000,000 feet; oil in bulk, 68,500 bars; 8400 tons of coal, 2500 tons of nitrates, and 3890 bags of mail. Freight arriving here from foreign ports was 3865 tons. In February of this year, which was an average month, 35,705 tons of freight from domestic ports orts, while only 260 342 tons arrived the 12 months of last year. For-

CITY EMPLOYE WAS OPERATED UPON BUT INSISTS ON WORKING

Jimmie Goo, stenographer in the city engineer's office, struggled back to the office this merning to help get out the labor pay rolls, which he knew had to be made up today. He was operated on Sanday and Monday he came back to work but was sent home by George M. Collins, city engineer. "That boy is the most efficient clerk in the city's employ, I believe," said Collins this morning. "He knew there was work to be done today and he just couldn't stay away from the office. He always thinks of his work first."
